WINE ENTHUSIAST

90 Points.
“The warm golden color predict this wine's richness while its bubbles carry tart cider apple and sweet floral herb scents. It's toasty and full across the palate, light and dry in the end. Substantial enough for veal sausages or country pâté.”

87 Points. Best Buy.
“Orange peel and citrus zest slowly give way to mature peach and apricot. This sparkling Prosecco definitely seems on the ripe side with a slightly golden element and big peach intensity...an elegant, sophisticated style with interesting levels of complexity.”
